Pristina, 04 April 2006
ERO Code: D_09_2006

Pursuant to the authority given under Article 23 of the Law no. 2004/10 On Electricity, the Board of the Energy Regulatory Office on a session held on 04 April 2006 issued:

DECISION

On Fee for review and granting the Certificate of Eligibility

Taking into account provision of the Article 22 of the Law on Electricity, in accordance to the Administrative Instruction No.001/2006 issued by Ministry of Energy and Mining (MEM) on conditions for determining eligible customers for the year 2006, the Energy Regulatory Office (ERO) hereby determinates the amount of fee to charge each applicant for the Certificate of Eligibility.

Amount of Fee is determinate based on administrative expense that will occur for review and issuance of Certificate including, but not limited to:

- a) charges for publication of the announcement of eligibility in daily newspapers;
- b) charges for printing, copying and filing application;

When the applicant applies for the status of eligible customer he is OBLIGED to pay an amount of 200.00 Euro to the finance department of ERO or to provide the certificate from the bank that deposit of amount mentioned above is made through the bank account:

If payment of fee is made in cash ERO will provide the receipt of payment.
